

2025 NMOSD GRAND ROUNDS

This GJCF complimentary and CME-accredited series will feature virtual sessions led by internationally renowned experts. Content will provide a focused update of an essential topic in Neuromyelitis Optica Spectrum Disorder (NMOSD), providing clinical pearls and an interactive pocket guide.

Register now:

Sponsored by:

This activity is supported by educational funding
by Amgen.

RELEASE DATES

SESSION 1

Feb 28

Diagnosis & Differential Diagnosis of NMOSD

Dean Wingerchuk, MD, MSc, FRCP(C)
Mayo Clinic

SESSION 2

Mar
28

Emerging Principles & Practices for Imaging

Frederique Oertel, MD, PhD
Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin

SESSION 3

Apr
25

Therapeutic Decision-Making: Mechanisms & Rationale

Jeffrey Bennett, MD, PhD
University of Colorado, Denver

SESSION 4

May 9

Pathogenesis & Immunologic Targets

Scott Zamvil, MD, PhD
University of California, San Francisco

SESSION 5

May 30

Toward Harmonized Relapse & Severity Adjudication

Brian Weinshenker, MD
University of Virginia

SESSION 6

Jun
27

Evidence-Based Rescue Strategies for Relapse

Jacqueline Palace, BM, FRCP, DM
Oxford University

SESSION 7

Jul
25

Managing Day-to-Day Non-Relapse Symptoms

Hesham Abboud, MD, PhD
Case Western Reserve University

SESSION 8

Aug 29

Best Practice Care of Patients in Special Populations

Tanuja Chitnis, MD
Mass General Brigham

SESSION 9

Sept
19

Evaluation & Optimizing Patient Visual Health

John Chen, MD, PhD
Mayo Clinic

SESSION 10

Oct
31

Addressing Mental Health: Diagnosis & Interventions

Ira Lesser, MD
University of California, Los Angeles

SESSION 11

Nov
21

Moving to Mobility: Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation

Hina Garg, PT, MS, PhD, NCS, CEEAA
Rocky Mountain University

SESSION 12

Dec 12

Emerging Tolerization Technologies & Clinical Trials

Michael Yeaman, PhD, MSc
University of California, Los Angeles